Hi Clint, we're looking into this, but because of travel and family holiday commitments won't be able to wrap it up tonight. We'll get back to you as soon as we can. We certainly would have been happy to look into this at any point after Jesse's report was filed last month, including on Tuesday evening before Jesse's deposition when we got you information about the Bates range of our production.

Have a good weekend, and a happy holiday to those who are celebrating holidays this weekend.

Subject: Young v. Cree- Jesse David documents and bates ranges.

Becky and Stuart,

As you know, Jesse David testified the other day that he relied upon the documents that he listed in his report, and they informed his conclusions. However, we do not appear to have copies in the database of several of the documents he listed in his report. The following documents listed in his report are not in any of the three document productions we have received to date and must be produced immediately:

- CREE_01762499 – 500
- CREE_02165616
- CREE_02168250 – 251
- CREE_02166939 – 942
- CREE_02166967 – 970
- CREE_02166974 – 977
- CREE_02180460 – 461

- CREE_02200417
- CREE_02214029
- CREE_02214381 – 382
- CREE_02215835
- CREE_02222005
- CREE_02222227
- CREE_02225262
- CREE_02314075
- CREE_02315341
- CREE_02338377 – 378
- CREE_02417861 – 862
- CREE_02442681
- CREE_02446416
- CREE_02450683
- CREE_02214029
- CREE_01762500

We also note that all of these documents are well outside the bates range of documents that have been provided to us (last bates number produced according to our records is CREE_00072982). Can you explain how these documents were A) not produced already, and B) so far outside the bates range for this case? Thank you.
